OVER OFFICIOUS OFFICIALS.

The action of the Board, in the matter of bills for printing, seems to be recognised generally at its true smallness. Of course, if there were any chance at all, the GAZETTE was sure to be left out in the cold. That was to be expected. Yesterday's Enterprise says:

"The Board, in cutting down the bills, arrogated to itself a power it does not possess, either in law or equity. Its members might as well go into a store and fix the price of the merchant's stock for such articles as might be required for the use of the State Prison or Orphan's Home. The duty of the Board in the premises was for it to have divided the money in the fund pro rata among the newspapers having bills before it and to include the balance due each paper in the list of deficiencies to be presented to the Legislature. We hope the newspapers of the State will combine and send a committee to the Legislature to secure their just dues. It is the height of impertinence for the commission to cut down the bills of newspapers, which demands are based on legal rates. We propose that the newspapers cut down the bills of State Officers that will be presented to the Legislature under the head of deficiencies. There would be as much equity in such a proceeding as there is in the State Officers cutting down advertising bills that are in accordance with legally authorized rates. Further, we doubt if there ever has been any legal fund for the payment of advertising bills, but if there was the Board had no right to make preferred creditors for the amount it contained.

Some of our State officials do not seem to recognize that they are the servants of the people, but act as if they were the people's masters. They appear to entertain the opinion that the State Government is their exclusive property. We hope the Legislature will teach a few of these puffed-up and overpaid individuals that they are merely the employees of the State of Nevada, and not its owners. The Treasurer and Controller act as though they held a quit-claim deed to the State Government."

A LOCUST DESTROYER.

"Sir John Lubbock has made a discovery which may turn out of some importance to our Western farmers. In the neighborhood of the site of ancient Troy Sir John has come across a beetle whose mission it seems to be to destroy locusts by consuming their eggs. Even before they arrive at the dignity of full blown beetles, while in the grub stage of their development, they begin their attack on the unhatched young of the 'winged destroyer.' The voracity of the Lubbock beetle is said to be extraordinary, and some of them seem to be able to destroy the whole crop of 'hoppers' and have actually done so in certain parts of Asia Minor this season."—New York Sun.

This news should be intensely interesting to the farmers of Washoe county and the valleys north of us. This Lubbock beetle is just what they need. An effort should be made to procure some of the insects. Their introduction in this section might be the means of ridding us of the grasshopper plague. We would like to hear what Prof. Lemmon thinks of the Lubbock beetle.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The future of Reno depends very much on the country north. If she can identify herself with the rich counties of Plumas, Lassen and Modoc, she will prosper. Recognizing its important relations with Reno, the GAZETTE recently sent a representative to make the tour of Plumas county and learn something of its nature and prospects. We will give the results of the visit as fast as our limited space will permit.

Dr. Lorgea, of the Hamman baths, gave some excellent testimony in the Schroeder trial. The doctor does not believe that a man can be in perfect sense up to a certain point and be insane a few seconds afterwards, and then sane again. If a man has an irresistible impulse to kill a man, the law should have an irresistible impulse to hang him.

Arthur McEwan, our old Republican friend and collaborer, was yesterday presented by the Democrats of Storey county with a fine watch and chain for eminent services. Mac certainly deserves it for swallowing al-

the Credit-Mobilier, and DeGolyer nonsense and the Morey letter, and trying to make others believe it.

"The eclipse of the moon in this section was a failure, the atmosphere being so murky that the moon was not visible at all."—Reno Journal.

The GAZETTE's esteemed local contemporary should wake up earlier in the morning.

Blue Christmas on the Comstock this year. This failure of the Alta deal will tie up many a Christmas present.

The reason why Alta stock shows such a marked decline is that it has been watered.

The Death of an Indiana Hero.

From the Cincinnati Gazette

This morning John Haberstraw heroically sacrificed his life to save others. He and his handcar were caught in a narrow cut near town by a passenger train. He could have saved his life, but instead got off the car, and in the face of certain death, tried to drag it from the track. He had almost succeeded when the engine struck him, but he saved the train. He died to-night.

"Nine o'clock!" said Mme. de M. to her maid: "I must begin to undress for the ball."

Wrinkled Faces.

It is a painful sight to see young ladies in their teens with wrinkled and prematurely old faces; nevertheless it is quite common, and to any one who observes the tendency of the times the reason is very apparent. Owing to flaring advertisements and bogus certificates, in which are used the names of eminent physicians and chemists, the unsuspecting and credulous have been induced to use some of the so-called liquid beautifiers, all of which are known to be positively injurious, and if used for any length of time will destroy the complexion, so that it will be next to impossible to restore it. Mothers should be very careful to see that their daughters do not use these preparations, but ask for and obtain Shiloh's Harmless Yosemite Face Powder, the only harmless beautifier. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cts., to run the risk and do nothing for it? We know from experience that Shiloh's cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup, and whooping cough, at once. Mothers do not be without it. For lame back, side, or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by Osburn & Shoemaker, druggists, Reno, Nevada. nov8-eod-d&w

Dentistry—Reduction in Prices.

I. Fredrick sells jewelry cheaper than any jeweler in town, but still does not sell below cost; neither does he intend to leave town.

Do not fail to call and examine I. Fredrick's immense stock of holiday goods, comprising the latest novelties in watches, clocks, jewelry, etc. nov17

On Account of Removal.

Mrs. Julia Prescott, the fashionable milliner of this place, takes this method of informing the ladies in general that on account of removal she is compelled to sell her beautiful stock of millinery and fancy goods at a sacrifice. Ladies wishing to secure bargains in reality, will do well by calling soon. dec3 MRS. JULIA PRESCOTT.

Merry Christmas to All.

Osburn & Shoemaker send greeting to their old friends and the public generally, and take pleasure in informing them that they have now on hand, just received from Eastern Cities and San Francisco, the finest assortment of Holiday goods ever offered to the people of Reno. Articles rich and rare, costly and cheap, as you may desire. PLUMAS COUNTY.

Its Intimate Relations With Reno.

Fine Prospects for the Future Development of Its Mining and Other Resources.

There is no county in California in which Reno is more directly interested than in Plumas, and no county has better prospects in the immediate future. A large part of her supplies is taken in by teams from Reno, and travel must naturally come this way to a great extent. The wisdom of keeping on good terms and of cultivating intimate relations with the residents must be apparent to everyone in Reno. Plumas is very rich in natural resources, and the process of development is going on rapidly just now. It not only has great mines of different kinds but it has large bodies of the finest timber, valleys where hay and grain are raised, and dairies that produce as good butter as can be found on the Pacific Coast. One of the very finest trips that could be found in any country was passed over by a GAZETTE reporter not long ago, and would be of immense benefit as pleasure to anyone who will make it in the proper season. It is to be regretted that fewer Nevadans avail themselves of their magnificent opportunities for Alpine scenery and healthy air.

THE GRAND MOUNTAIN VIEWS in Plumas would be worth millions in commonplace Ohio, Indiana or Illinois. The whole country would be set apart for a park, and the deer, grouse and trout would be protected by law. Here about a dozen worn-out business men pick up line and gun for a week's sport in summer, and the rest of the citizens grind along without an hour's rest. Any one going from here to Greenville and back through Quincy and Jamison would see Plumas county pretty thoroughly. He would go out through Lemmon's valley and cross the line into Plumas between the Junction House and the Summit. The northern portion of Sierra valley is in Plumas county, and the middle and southern part in Sierra county. Beckwith is on Feather river and also on the line between valley and mountain, between sagebrush and pine. It is a pleasant little village on a sunny south slope. It is near Jim Beckwith's old station and fort, where he fought Indians and hunted and trapped many years ago. The old log station still stands, and is at present occupied as a farm house by Mr. Kirby, but "Old Jim" has been dead some years. From here the road strikes right into the mountains and goes

"On and up, where Nature's heart Beats strong amid the hills."

The mountain range of G. W. Mapes lies on the right for a mile or so above Beckwith. It is a fine hay producer. A heavily wooded divide is crossed to reach Clover valley, which is 10 miles long, but very narrow. J. S. Crow has a fine ranch and dairy, shipping much excellent butter into Reno. He owns the widest part of the valley. In summer he is much troubled by campers who are fond of fresh butter, chickens, etc. He says Comstock, Knust, White and their parties had to be watched all the time. The little stream is full of delicious fish. Grouse and quail are plenty in the meadows and deer and bear in the hills. Ben Crow has a hay ranch above his brother's. He built an immense barn last summer in which to store his crop. I. Hall, G. W. Thielkill, Ira Mapes and R. Bagley are the four other ranchers in the valley. About 1,000 tons of hay are raised when the grasshoppers do not interfere. These pests have helped to harvest the hay for four years, and more eggs were laid last summer. The ranchers say they will be eaten up next summer unless there is a big shower of boiling water to kill the eggs. There are no mines in the neighborhood. No grain is raised on account of the frosts, which fall every month of the year. Five miles from Crow's, R. Bagley has a very nice hotel. He was the first settler in the valley and has lived here eighteen years. His nearest neighbor on one side is five miles and the other fifteen.

THE BIG RED HOTEL

with its white facings seems to occupy the whole road until very near it. It is a very picturesque feature of the landscape—one not soon forgotten by the visitor. The road to the next station in Genesee Valley, fifteen miles away, is full of interest. The country is volcanic and contains a great deal of iron. Black columns and pillars line the road. They are often of the most grotesque shape, and a lively imagination could find plenty of occupation on a moonlight night. The road climbs up a good many hundred feet to cross a precipitous point, and is in many places hanging on the walls of the canyon in a way to make a timid rider's flesh creep. The grade was built by Judge T. E. Haydon, now of Reno, who put in quite a little fortune that he never got back. R. S. Flournoy keeps a ranch at the upper end of Genesee Valley, and E. D. Hosselker's one at the lower. The valley is five miles long and is the Chamouni of the Sierras. The vast mountain wall closes it in on every side so far as one can see, and the beautiful little valley with its meadows and orchards seems to be completely shut in from the busy world. Mr. Flournoy has a very handsome brick house large enough to accommodate a big hotel trade. His orchard is superb. It is fourteen years old and has a choice variety of fruit which reaches a high state of excellence. Mr. Hosselker's has a village of his own at the other end of the valley. His barns and storehouses line the road, forming quite a street. The line of travel next strikes Indian Valley, which will be reserved for a future day.

On the Choice of Gifts.

Among all the articles suitable for Christmas gifts there is nothing better than a fine book. A cultivated person is sure to appreciate a good work, and the choice of a book is in itself a delicate compliment to the intelligence of the donee. A. C. Blakely has a good stock of books for the holiday trade. They comprise most of the standard poetical works, some of them superbly bound in morocco, and a great variety of story books and picture books for the children. In the way of fancy goods he shows beautiful photograph stands, picture frames, albums, purses, cigar holders and innumerable other articles. He has a lot of handsome pocket diaries for next year. A box of excellent cigars, a gift sure to be appreciated by any smoker, can be purchased from Mr. Blakely. Altogether, his stock makes a most attractive display.

A New Shakespearean Reading.

PYRAMID LAKE, Dec. 15.
ED. GAZETTE:—Can you tell me who wrote: "A woman may rile and smile and be a villain." Wasn't it the "Immortal Pard," Shakespear?

STAGE STRUCK.
We think the line above quoted does not occur in any edition of Shakespeare's works. Our correspondent has probably got a corrupted rendering of the line: "A man may smile and smile, and be a villain." Still the reading he quotes, though not strictly classical in expression, has some merit of its own, and may yet be adopted by some editor of the works of the "Immortal Pard."—[ED. GAZETTE.]

A Conflagration Stopped With Snow.

The fire which burned out S. Fannon and G. H. Taylor at Candelaria is supposed to have been caused by the explosion of a coal oil lamp which had been left turned down in a room adjoining Taylor's store. Taylor's loss is stated at about $4,700; Fannon's $2,800. Fannon will soon rebuild, the True Press says. The fire was smothered with snow which the men threw on with shovels. Had it not been for the snow, the whole town would have been consumed, as the wind favored the fire, and there were not 300 gallons of water in the whole place.

Why the Ladies Go to Sol. Levy's.

Sol. Levy's extensive dry goods establishment is filled to overflowing with new stock. He went below to buy expressly for the holiday trade. The big boxes piled up in front of his store have been emptied of their contents, which are now displayed for inspection. Men in search of presents for their sisters and their cousins and their aunts should not neglect to call at this establishment and take a look at the beautiful goods. As for the ladies, they are bound to go there anyhow, and need no special invitation.

The Dance To-Night.

The Amateur Quadrille Band's hop in Kimball's hall to-night, will be a very pleasant affair. The attendance will probably be much larger than on the first occasion. Dancing will commence at 9 o'clock. Tickets $1.

FORLORN WASHOES.

An Indian Tribe Without an Agent and a Reservation.

U. S. District Attorney Varian has surrendered to the local authorities the man McCarty, who was arrested for selling whiskey to an Indian. It transpires that the injured Indian is of the Washoe tribe. The Washoes have no Reservation, and are not under special Government protection, having no agent, or superintendent. It is not an offense under the laws of the United States to sell whiskey to Washoes. Mr. Varian is informed that special census agent Henshaw will shortly be sent from Washington to visit and enumerate the Washoes and report upon their condition.

The friends of Lo, the poor Indian, are deeply concerned at the discovery of the unprotected condition of the Washoes. It is sad to think that the Washoes miss the fatherly care of an Indian agent. Sheriff Walker says that in early days they had a Reservation allotted to them. It was situated between Mayberry's and Boca. But now they roam at will over the desolate wastes of the sagebrush, with no Reservation to which they can flee to escape the seductions of fire-water, with no agent in whose bosom to take refuge from their oppressors.

There is a State law which makes it a misdemeanor to sell whiskey to Indians, without distinction of tribe. In a case of selling whiskey to Piutes, the U. S. District Attorney has the power to try the prisoner in the U. S. Circuit Court at Carson. It is a penitentiary offense under the U. S. Statutes.

Evans Arrives With His Sheep Thief.

The arrival of Alvaro Evans with Oscar Tharp, the sheep thief, drew a crowd at the depot last evening. Tharp took the sheep on shares to pasturage last spring, sold them out to sheep men up north, and left the State. He did not succeed in pulling the wool over Evans' eyes, however, and learning the whereabouts of Tharp, the old man started east for him, catching him in Missouri, after a good deal of trouble.

A foreigner, who has not yet acquired a perfect knowledge of English, asked last evening what that crowd was about. He was told that a "sheep thief" had been caught. "Oh," he said, "They've caught the chief stiff, have they?"

Personal.

Miss Hatch went below last night to spend the winter.
Rev. W. Carver is in town. He goes north again next week.
Johnathan Sides, the Piute interpreter, is requested to call at this office officially.
Charles Crocker, Mrs. Crocker, Miss Hattie Crocker and Judge Mesick are passengers on the westbound train, to pass through Reno to-night.
Lawyer Soderberg, of Carson, took the overland for Oakland last night.
Gov. Woods and Col. Moore arrived from San Francisco this morning.
Little Ida Huntsman is in Missouri this winter. She is greatly delighted with the glass eye her mother bought for her in St. Louis. It cost $35.

Lassen's Inhabitants.

According to the late census, Lassen county, California, has a total population of 3,340. The males largely outnumber the females, the proportion being 2,002 to 1,338. Of the whole number, only 371 are foreign. There are 382 colored persons, of whom 50 are Chinese and 330 Indians and half-breeds.

Seasonable Hints to the Gentlemen.
C. A. Loomis' dry goods establishment presents an especially attractive appearance just now. He has imported some choice goods for the holidays. Among the articles displayed a lot of Japanese boxes, for gloves, handkerchiefs, etc., will be particularly noticed. To fill these he can provide initialed handkerchiefs, in lace, silk and linen; and kid gloves of any size and shade. He is also showing some beautiful styles in hosiery, which, even in their present situation, will catch the appreciative masculine eye. Mr. Loomis has just added to his extensive stock a new supply of rushings, dress goods, etc.

Indian Agent Pro Tem.

W. H. Wasson, formerly clerk for Mr. Spencer, has been appointed Indian Agent at Pyramid, pro tem, until the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Spencer can be regularly filled.

TALK IS CHEAP,

And So Are FINE Clothing, BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, Gentlemen's AND BOYS FINE FURNISHING GOODS.

If you go to the right place to get them, This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. We do not boast when we say that we defy competition in prices in anything in our line. Besides this we have only one price. We have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at our establishment. Our stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything we have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on our shelves. We receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of our prices and examine our stock before going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. We make a profit on everything we sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. We particularly call attention to our full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods form one of our specialties. Orders from the country promptly attended to. Look out for the White Building with the Gold Sign.
